The wanted crook goes to jail!

By Melvin Giron-Barrios

Story running long?
Grab another sheet of paper!

Once upon a time in lego city a big robbery happened. 4 robbers had escaped from jail. The robbers stole a lot of gold and crystals.
One of them was captured. Their name was Julian. The other bad guys got away.

Then the bad guys freed three more criminals, and started to steal more stuff. First they stole a big boat. Then they tried to steal a fire truck but it didn't work because the garage was locked and there was no other way to get in. And so they tried to steal a limo.

The police station's alarm rang so then the police tried to find the crooks. The crooks didn't know that the alarm rang. So then they tried to steal from the police station. They tried to steal a helicopter but they didn't have the keys.

Then they tried to steal a police boat, but it didn't have any gas. Then they tried to steal a police car. Two of them were looking for handcuffs to capture the police, but they got arrested.
So then the four tried to steal from the bank again but the bank was closed, and they had no idea how to get in.

The security cameras spotted them and the police saw the video and came straight to the bank and arrested them. And all the robbers were so mad!
